TOUR OVERVIEW

The Autumn Colours Spectacular Tour of Japan offers a great blend of Japan's 'must see' and 'off the beaten track' sites, which is sure to exceed your expectations of Japan.

This 15-day journey is designed to show you the best of Japan at autumn's peak. On this carefully curated trip, you will experience the Japanese culture up close to both history and modern Japan. It is your perfect introduction to Japan as you travel the diverse landscapes, iconic sites and many hidden treasures with some of Japan's best tour guides.

As in most Journey to the East group tours, this tour runs with a maximum of 8 travellers which allows you to access locally owned boutique accommodation, restaurants, small temples and craft shops that large groups can't access. It travels at a reasonable pace with guided excursions in the backstreets on foot.

Our most comprehensive autumn tour visits iconic sites in Tokyo, Kyoto, Nikko, Mt Fuji, Hiroshima and Miyajima as well as providing rural experiences in Matsumoto and Takayama.

| 2   | Wed12/11/2025 | Guided tour of Tokyo | After a brief orientation with your guide, you begin your exploration of Tokyo. Our guided tours focus on finding hidden gems as you walk through the backstreets rather than just visiting crowded famous spots in each city. In Tokyo on the first day, you visit the Marunouchi area in between the beautifully restored 100-year-old Tokyo Station and Imperial Palace Plaza. Marunouchi means inside wall or moat, and it was originally the inner sanctum of Edo Castle, now the Emperor's Palace. It is the oldest and elitist office area in Japan, where all the top Japanese companies have headquarters, and a great spot to see the physical blend of history and modernity. In Marunouchi you will see; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The Imperial Palace Plaza with 2,000 impressive black pine trees, the world away from the business district of Marunouchi,</li> <li>- Tree-lined Marunouchi streets to see impressive heritage buildings that marked the modernization of Japan in the 19th century, and</li> <li>- The red-brick façade of Tokyo Station, one of the city's most striking pieces of architecture, against the glass and steel of neighbouring skyscrapers.</li> </ul> After the walking tour of Marunouchi, you will have lunch at a local restaurant amongst Japanese office workers. In the afternoon, you will head to Ginza, perhaps one of the most famous neighbourhoods in Japan. You will see the big international brands lining the main streets, however, we will take you to the backstreets to find traditional craft shops and food retailers. You will have some free time here, too. Tonight you will get together for a welcome dinner of modern Japanese cuisine at a restaurant near your hotel. | Breakfast,Lunch,Dinner | Park Hotel Tokyo [Queen/Twin] |
